

Commercial Court

NOTICE TO THE PROFESSION 11/2009

COMMERCIAL COURT LIST F

The Judicial Officers of the Commercial Court with the approval of the Chief Justice advise the profession as follows:

- 1 As from 17 September 2009 there will be a List F within the Commercial Court.
- 2 All cases presently in the Victorian Taxation Appeals List will be automatically entered in the Commercial Court without further entry fee or order and will be included in Commercial Court Taxation List F: Taxation Cases.
- 3 Cases covered by Chapter II Order 7 of the Rules of the Supreme Court will be entered into List F without payment of the fee applicable to enter the Commercial Court. Any other case involving a tax dispute that could otherwise be entered into the Commercial Court (including tax recovery actions, damages actions against tax advisors and disputes with respect to GST) may be entered in Commercial Court List F upon payment of the fee applicable to enter the Commercial Court.
- 4 The Honourable Justice Davies has been appointed by the Chief Justice as the Judge in Charge of List F.
